Chadshunt lies approximately 1 mile to the North of Kineton, and comprises a small village located along the Kineton to Gaydon Road. Within the well served village of Kineton, a number of shops for daily requirements including post office, two general stores, bakers, pharmacy, opticians, hairdressers, and veterinary practice. Also within the village; a Parish Church, Roman Catholic and Methodist Churches, two doctors' surgeries, two public houses, sports club, primary and secondary schools.

Kineton village enjoys a close, active community a diverse population of all ages, drawn to the village for its facilities, café, and restaurants. The surrounding countryside offers walking, cycling and riding. The Cotswold Hills lie to the South and nearby Stratford upon Avon, Banbury, Leamington Spa and Warwick offer a wide range of shopping, recreational, leisure facilities and supermarkets.

Lynrock is understood to have originally been constructed circa 1945 as one of four semi-detached farm worker cottages for neighbouring Chadshunt Estate. The property adjoins open countryside to three sides and enjoys far reaching views to the South-East at the front and a substantial enclosed North-West facing garden to the rear.

The property has been in the same ownership for over 30 years, during which time substantial extension and improvement works have been undertaken to the accommodation, resulting in the substantial house in excess of 2000 square feet that presents today.

Much emphasis has been placed on sustainability of the property including the solar panels, battery storage, EV charging point and most recently air source heating at the beginning of 2024. The property now provides a substantial energy efficient house with an EPC Rating of B in a delightful rural position with far reaching views.
