Kineton is a popular well served village with a number of shops for daily requirements including post office, general stores, bakers, pharmacy and opticians. Also within the village; a Parish Church, Roman Catholic and Methodist Churches, doctors' surgery, public house, sports club, primary and secondary schools.

The village enjoys a close, active community with families, professionals and second home owners, drawn to the village with its facilities, café's, and restaurants. The surrounding countryside offers walking, cycling and riding. The Cotswold Hills lie to the South and nearby Stratford upon Avon, Banbury, Leamington Spa and Warwick offer a wide range of shopping facilities and supermarkets.

The mainline railway station at Banbury provides regular services to Long Marylebone taking approximately one hour. Junction 12 of the M40 Motorway at nearby Gaydon provides access to Birmingham and London.

2 Palmers Leys forms one of five executive detached houses, understood to have been constructed in 2002.
