Middle Tysoe is a South Warwickshire village situated about one mile south of the A422 Stratford-upon-Avon to Banbury Road at the foot of the Edgehill Escarpment close to the South Warwickshire/North Oxfordshire border. The village has a parish church, a public house, a general store, Post Office, Football & Tennis clubs, Hairdresser, Primary School and Doctor's surgery.

The village is about 7 miles from Junction 12 of the M40 Motorway at Gaydon, which gives road access to Oxford and London to the south and Birmingham and the Midlands to the north. There is a main line station at Banbury with trains south to Oxford and London, and north to Birmingham.

The surrounding countryside offers a wealth of walks, cycling, horse riding and outdoor pursuits, with the Cotswold Hills a few miles distant.

Ladies Orchard enjoys a secluded private position in the heart of the village to the rear of a neighbouring property. Approached by a gravel driveway, the property is understood to have been constructed in approximately 1996 of Hornton Stone under a tiled roof. Attached to the neighbouring property by the large single garage, the property is presented to an excellent standard by the current owners of the last nine years.

Recent works include replacement boiler, redecoration, replacement flooring, multi fuel stove to the sitting room, replacement windows, internal doors, Shower room with walk in shower and stylish contemporary kitchen with integrated appliances.
