Location & Directions

Dovenby is a small, picturesque village in Cumbria, located just a few miles from the market town of Cockermouth. Surrounded by beautiful countryside, it offers a peaceful rural setting with a strong sense of community. Despite its quiet charm, Dovenby is well placed for access to the Lake District National Park, the Solway coast, and local amenities in nearby towns and is ideal for those seeking village life with excellent connections.

Directions

If travelling from Cockermouth, turn left opposite The Ship pub. Continue for a very short distance, then turn right onto a dead-end road lined with houses. The property is located along this road. You can also find the exact location using the what3words address:
