The Property:

Nestled between the charming villages of Bigrigg and St Bees, this delightful terraced cottage offers the perfect blend of countryside tranquillity and coastal charm. Set along a quiet lane with only a handful of neighbours, the property enjoys uninterrupted views across open fields both to the front and rear, creating a wonderful sense of peace and privacy. The cosy lounge features a beautiful exposed sandstone fireplace with a log burner, while the modern kitchen is well presented and thoughtfully designed for comfortable everyday use.

Outside, the home boasts a surprisingly large plot with an extensive rear garden laid mainly to lawn, backing directly onto open countryside, perfect for those seeking a slice of rural life. Upstairs, a spacious double bedroom takes in lovely front views, while the modern bathroom adds comfort and convenience. A converted attic room on the top floor offers even more space and stunning vistas to the rear.

With no onward chain, off-road resident parking to the front, and close proximity to St Bees beach and the Lake District National Park, this charming home is ideal for first-time buyers, those relocating, or anyone seeking a peaceful holiday retreat.

Location & directions:

Located in the picturesque West Cumbrian countryside between Bigrigg and the seaside village of St Bees, this idyllic spot combines rural calm with convenient access to local amenities. St Bees offers a beautiful sandy beach, cafes, and the starting point of the Coast to Coast walk, while the nearby town of Egremont provides shops, schools, and services. The Lake District National Park is just a short drive away, making this a superb base for exploring both the fells and the coast.
