1 The Coach House

The Property:

Historically part of the Whitehall Estate, Cumbrian residence of locally born and widely renowned philanthropist and businessman George Moore, 1 The Coach House is a beautifully appointed sandstone built Grade II listed former Coach House, with an attached Clock Tower, built in 1861, which has undergone a wonderful transformation by Lattimer builders in 2010. Now brimming with character, space, and light, this exceptional six-bedroom, three-bathroom period home invites you to experience family living at its finest.

At the heart of the property, a spacious open plan kitchen and dining area is beautifully finished with sleek modern units, integrated appliances, and space for an 8 person table, creating an inviting hub for gatherings and every-day moments. The seamless flow continues into the bright living room, where abundant natural light streams through large windows, highlighting the modern decor and welcoming atmosphere. An elegant archway connects the living and dining spaces, while the charming entrance hallway – with its striking arched doorway sets the tone for the home's unique blend of period features and contemporary comfort.

Enjoying a unique split level lay out with bedrooms on the first and lower ground floors, each bedroom is thoughtfully designed to maximise comfort and practicality, with calming neutral decor, plush carpeting, and ample natural light from generous windows and skylights. The spacious bedrooms offer a variety of layouts, including rooms with cosy bunk beds for children, inviting retreats with decorative ceiling beams, and tranquil master suites boasting elegant wooden furniture, built-in storage, and convenient en-suite bathrooms. The modern bathrooms are equally impressive, featuring sleek tiling, walk-in shower, and luxurious bath-tubs. A versatile study with dual workspaces and lovely garden views provides the perfect spot for working from home or creative pursuits, whilst still offering flexibility as an extra bedroom if required.

Outside, the property's historic stone architecture and cobbled courtyard exude timeless charm. The distinctive clock tower and rustic stone work, complemented by a detached Oak built garage create a picturesque and private outdoor sanctuary, perfect for relaxing, entertaining, or letting children play in safety. Period features, including arched ceilings and the historic clock tower, blend seamlessly with contemporary finishes, offering a truly unique living environment. With ample storage, multiple family-friendly zones, and a layout that effortlessly accommodates both lively gatherings and quiet moments, this house is ready to welcome its next owners.
