A spacious, detached, beautifully presented, five-bedroomed family home in Beaconsfield's New Town, with a sun-soaked south-facing garden on a plot of 0.32 acres. The property is just a short walk to the station with links to London Marylebone, local shops and amenities, and in catchment for highly regarded state and private primary and secondary schools. This substantial property is set back from the road and approached over a gravel drive with parking for up to six cars plus a double garage. The front door opens into a large entrance hall leading to a good-sized study, large dining room, and drawing room on the left. Internal doors between the dining and drawing room can be fully opened to create a fabulous double aspect entertaining space. Patio doors provide wonderful views of the swimming pool and garden.
