

An attractive stone built detached Grade II listed cottage situated within the popular village of Osmotherley. The property benefits from oil fired central heating together with period style features including some sash windows, radiators, exposed internal stone work and internal doors which add to the overall character of this lovely home. The accommodation includes an entrance hall, spacious living room with multi fuel burning stove, oak floor covering and exposed walls. The kitchen/dining area is fitted with wall and base units including integrated oven, hob and fridge freezer. There is a refurbished utility/rear lobby area and ground floor cloak room/wc. To the first floor there are two double bedrooms and a family bathroom fitted with a white suite including a roll top bath and under floor heating. To the second floor there is a large room and separate dressing room/study area. Externally to the front there is a stone flagged forecourt garden with gate and railings designed by the blacksmith James Godbold. To the rear there is a courtyard garden with access to the garage which provides off street parking. No onward chain.
