41 Albert Street, Amble NE65 0LZ

A conveniently located mid-terraced house in Amble, offering practical access to local amenities. This fantastic property is available with no onward chain and features three bedrooms, including two doubles—one with built-in wardrobes—and a single bedroom. The neutrally decorated accommodation also includes a separate lounge to the front, and a large open-plan dining kitchen at the rear.

Positioned close to Amble's high street, residents benefit from a range of shops, cafes, and weekly markets. The area is known for the picturesque Amble Harbour Village, offering independent boutiques, seafood restaurants, and scenic walking and cycling routes along the Northumberland coastline. Families will find schools within easy reach, while nearby parks and green spaces provide additional recreational options.

Public transport options are available at Alnmouth railway station, approximately 10 minutes by car, providing regular services to Newcastle (approximately 30 minutes) and Edinburgh (around 90 minutes). Bus routes connect Amble to neighbouring market towns and the city of Morpeth. The property's location suits both investors and families, given its ongoing success as a holiday rental and its proximity to essential amenities.
