Pump Cottage, The Village

Acklington NE65 9BW

Situated in the rural and highly regarded picturesque village of Acklington, this outstanding two double bedroom traditional stone cottage with the original part of the property dating to circa 1600s has been extended to the rear offering generously proportioned and beautifully presented accommodation throughout. Briefly comprising all to the ground floor: entrance lobby, spacious lounge and a well appointed dining kitchen to the rear with door to the garden. The inner hallway leads to two bedrooms and a bathroom. Outside, the lawned front garden contains many mature plants, shrubs and trees and is bordered by a stone wall. A garden gate opens to a pathway leading to the entrance door. Beyond the stone wall is the historic public water pump 'The Pant' which is maintained by the residents of the village. To the rear, the garden adjoins fields and countryside and has a gravelled and paved area with trees and shrubs and a stone outbuilding. There is also external access to the further room which is used as an office/hobby room. To the rear of the garden the patio provides a lovely peaceful escape to enjoy the warmer months of the year with views across to the countryside and there is a lawn area. The current owners have an agreement to park on the side lane however there is also the opportunity of creating off road parking using part of the rear garden. This fabulous property would be an ideal purchase for anyone looking for a traditional stone property full of charm and characterful with all the benefits of modern living. Acklington is a pretty village surrounded by fields and countryside yet within easy reach of the traditional harbour town of Amble with a large selection of shops, cafes and restaurants along with the harbour village with retail pods, fish restaurants, cafes, Little Shore Beach and Pier. The bustling market town of Morpeth is just a short drive away with many small businesses and chain retailers together with cafes and restaurants. Acklington has a regular bus service to Newcastle and to the towns and villages inbetween, the local train station has limited services however the main railways stations of Alnmouth and Morpeth provide services to Edinburgh, Newcastle and beyond and the A1 with its motorway links throughout the country is within easy reach. Acklington has a huge community spirit with a village hall holding many events and the local pub being a hub of social activity. An early viewing of this exceptional rural property within close proximity to the glorious coastline is strongly recommended.
