PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

County Mills is a historic building in the very centre of Hexham situated just off the main street. The building is served with secure intercom entry system as well as lift up to the third floor with stairs accessing the fourth.

This particular apartment is quirky with one main bedroom as well as an additional mezzanine floor above the lounge. Exposed beams, roof light windows, spiral staircase and interesting layout add to the character of the property.

The apartment is accessed from the communal hallway serving both flats on the top floor. The main door opens into a small entrance vestibule with enough space for cloaks hanging and shoes. Onwards through a second door brings you into the lounge which has plenty of natural light flooding in through several roof light windows.

Doors off to the kitchen, rear passage and storage cupboard as well as spiral staircase to mezzanine floor level.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of wall and base units and has a high level window which brightens the room.

The bedroom is situated to the rear of the apartment with a window and fire escape door.

The bathroom is well equipped with large storage cupboard, low level WC, hand wash basin and bath with shower over. Again there is a high level window, bringing in natural light.

Hexham offers all of the amenities needed for day to day life including healthcare, restaurants, pubs, leisure centre with swimming pool, sports facilities, train station, main bus route, road links in all directions, scenic rural surroundings, golf courses, town centre shopping, supermarkets, riverside country park – the list goes on!

Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate what is on offer in this quirky apartment.
