PROPERTY DESCRIPTION:

The property features a generous 27ft living room, filled with natural light from dual aspect windows and large windows overlooking the garden. A door leads directly to a communal courtyard, creating a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor spaces. There is also a feature fireplace, currently sealed, but could be opened up. The well-designed kitchen offers ample dining space, enhanced by natural light and complemented by a separate utility room.

There are three bedrooms in total. The generous master bedroom boasts open views, built-in wardrobes, and an en-suite bathroom fitted with a shower over the bath and a useful storage cupboard. The second and third bedrooms are both doubles, each equipped with built-in storage. The third bedroom offers convenient access to a Jack & Jill style bathroom, providing additional flexibility for families or guests.

A key feature of the former stable block is the defining characteristic in the kitchen with the period features and the practical benefit of a single garage and off-street parking. Offered with no upper chain, this property provides an excellent opportunity for those looking to move swiftly.

This home combines spacious living areas and practical features in a desirable location, making it a strong choice for a range of purchasers.

Externally, this property sits in around 28 acres of gardens, woodlands and walks to the Dene. Each resident pays towards the maintenance of the communal gardens and septic tank, currently at approx £1,000 per year.
