

18 Douglas Drive, Plymstock, Plymouth, Devon, PL9 8LR

Price £350,000

Douglas Drive is nestled in a quiet, sought-after residential location in the heart of Plymstock. This spacious two-bedroom detached bungalow was built by the renowned Fletcher family in the 1960's and offers flexible accommodation that could be re-configured should a purchaser wish to convert to a three-bedroom bungalow.

The bungalow features a spacious and light-filled south facing lounge with patio doors leading onto a balcony. The kitchen/diner has a range of fitted units and space for a range cooker. Both generously sized bedrooms offer ample storage, with the main benefiting from built-in wardrobes. There is a modern shower room and separate WC. Stairs from the entrance hall lead to the garage and utility below.

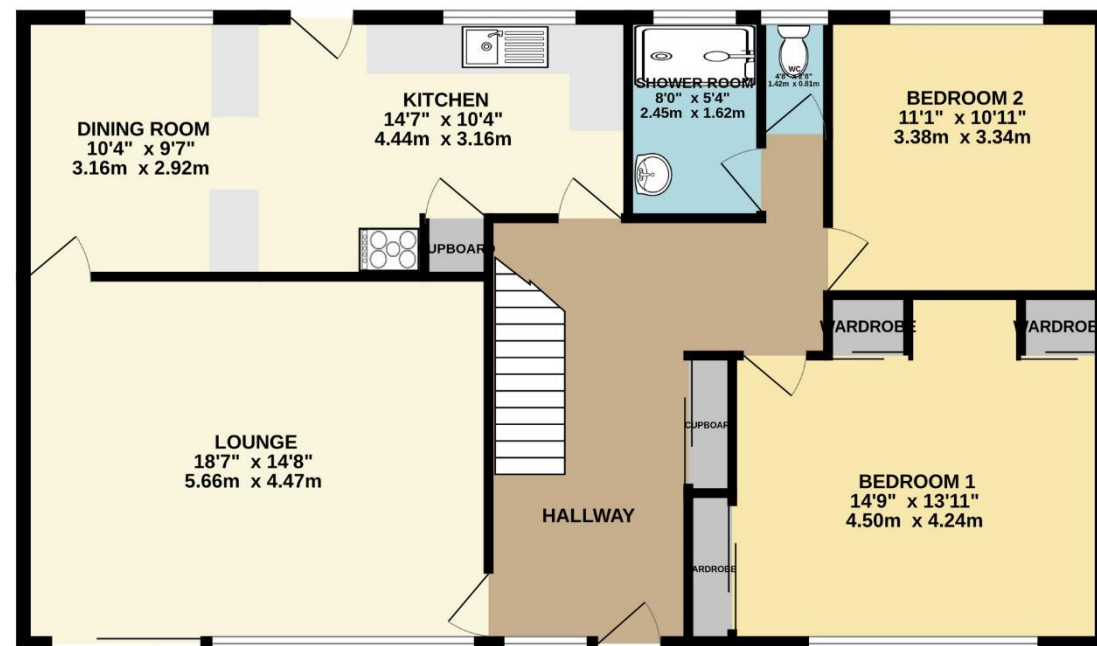

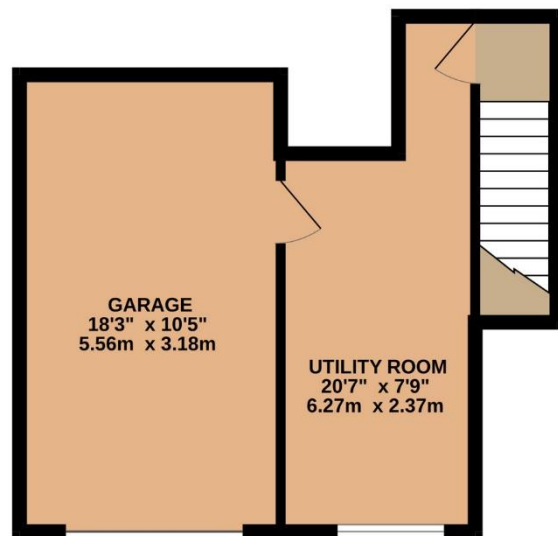

Outside, the property boasts a generous size rear garden offering a private space, and tranquil space to enjoy the outdoors. A driveway to the front provides off-road parking for numerous vehicles, and a single garage offers additional storage space or potential for further use.

This property is within easy reach of local shops, and excellent transport links, making it an ideal choice for those looking to enjoy a quiet yet connected location.

This charming bungalow offers a wonderful opportunity for potential purchasers. The property does require some updating but offers comfortable living space in a desirable location.
