A reputation you can rely on

When it comes to buying your new home it is reassuring to know that you are dealing with one of the most successful companies in the country, with a reputation built on designing and creating fine houses and apartments nationwide backed up with one of the industry's best after-care services.

In 1946 John and Russell Bell, newly demobbed, joined their father John T. Bell in a small family owned housebuilding business in Newcastle upon Tyne. From the very beginning John T. Bell & Sons, as the new company was called, were determined to break the mould. In the early 1950s Kenneth Bell joined his brothers in the company and new approaches to design layout and finishes were developed. In 1963 John T. Bell & Sons became part of the public corporate scene and the name Bellway evolved.

Over 60 years of great homes and great service

Today Bellway is one of Britain's largest house building companies and is continuing to grow throughout the country. Since its formation, Bellway has built and sold over 100,000 homes catering for first time buyers to more seasoned home buyers and their families. The Group's rapid growth has turned Bellway into a multi-million pound company, employing over 2,000 people directly and many more sub-contractors. From its original base in Newcastle upon Tyne the Group has expanded in to all regions of the country and is now poised for further growth.

Our homes are designed, built and marketed by local teams operating from regional offices managed and staffed by local people. This allows the company to stay close to its customers and take key decisions about design, build, materials, planning and marketing in response to local and not national demands. A simple point, but one which we believe distinguishes Bellway.

Fantastic facilities and stylish homes

Whether you are looking for a stylish 2, 3 or 4 bedroom home, Eastfields in South Carntyne offers stylish modern living in Glasgow's east side – with one of the most cosmopolitan of European cities on your doorstep.

The nearby Fort Centre is a shopping destination offering a variety of retail outlets, giving the term local shopping a new dimension. At the weekend you can take a stroll around the East End's 100 year old Barras market with its designer labels as well as bric-a-brac and book stalls. Head to Glasgow City Centre where you will find the UK's second largest shopping city with department stores, boutiques and speciality shops on Sauchiehall Street, Argyle Street and Buchanan Street as well as shopping quarters like the stylishly hip Princes Square and the light-filled atriums of the Argyle Arcade.

When it comes to style and culture as well as exciting nightlife, Glasgow offers a breathtaking choice – with galleries and literally a score of museums, an annual Film Festival and seemingly limitless places to eat and drink at its restaurants, bistros and wine bars. There's a thriving cafe culture too, whether your favourite spot is Merchant Square, The Italian Centre, The Buchanan Galleries or The West end. Unwind at Tollcross Park

Leisure Centre, home to the city's only 50-metre swimming pool, with its split-level state-of-the-art gym, dance studio and luxurious health suite, sauna, spa and steam room, as well as children's play centre.

Tollcross Park itself is a green oasis all-year-round from the Rose Garden to the Winter Gardens as well as the Glen Nature Walk and Children's Farm. Yet you are always just minutes away from the city – Carntyne Station is a short stroll from home at Eastfields, with Glasgow Queen Street seven minutes by train. Or head in a different direction, this is the gateway to the East, with Edinburgh just 35 miles away, and wide open spaces waiting to be explored.

- Prospective buyers are properly qualified before being given an appointment to view your present home

Customer Care

Our dedicated Customer Care department will ensure your move to a new Bellway home is as smooth as possible

For over sixty years the name Bellway has been synonymous with quality craftsmanship and quality homes; we are justifiably proud of this reputation and work hard to provide you with a home that meets with your dreams.

From the day a customer visits our sales centre to the move-in day we aim to provide a level of service and after-sales care that is second to none.

In recognising the close involvement our customers seek in purchasing their new homes we deliberately gear our sales hand-over process to involve our customers at every possible opportunity. Firstly all our homes are quality checked by our site managers and sales advisors. Customers are then invited to pre-occupation visits; this provides a valuable opportunity for homeowners to understand the various running aspects of their new home. On the move-in day our site and sales personnel will be there to ensure that the move-in is achieved as smoothly as possible.

Providing customer care and building quality homes is good business sense. However, we are aware that errors do occur and it has always been our intention to minimise inconvenience and resolve any outstanding issues at the earliest opportunity. In managing this process we have after sales teams and a Customer Care centre that is specifically tasked to respond to all customer complaints.

We have a 24 hour emergency helpline and provide a comprehensive information pack that details the working aspects of a new home; a 10 year NHBC warranty provides further peace of mind.

We are confident that our approach to building and selling new homes coupled with our Customer Care programme will provide you with many years of enjoyment in your new home.
