LV PROPERTY are proud to present this beautifully designed and se tout one bedroom apartment in the brand new development "the Copperworks"

The Grade II listed former brass works on Sloane Street dates back to 1854 and was once a hive of industrial activity, The empty building has now been transformed into a range of apartments, duplexes and townhouses. Built within the strict conservational guidelines designed to preserve the heritage of the Jewellery Quarter, the development cleverly fuses its past industrial usage with a modern aesthetic to offer an array of homes full of character and charm.

Deep reveal windows, dark contrasting surrounds, brick openings in the façade and open weave brickwork all combine to give an innovatively industrial appearance. Stylish residences both inside and out. The development also boasts secured gates at the entrances to the development and tight security including colour video access screens

Consisting of a large living room with an open plan kitchen, offering plenty of storage and state of the art fixture and fittings, including a built in fridge freezer, washing machine/tumble dryer, dishwasher, and modern state of the art sink and water sprayer.

The bedroom is spacious and offers plenty of natural lighting, whilst offering plenty of space and a large bed and wardrobe storage.

The bathroom is finished to a very high standard and include a bath and over head shower.
