Watcombe Road, London, SE25 4UZ

Welcome to this charming and inviting Victorian-style house nestled in the highly sought-after Country Park area and situated in a tree-lined side road boasting three generously sized bedrooms, providing ample space for comfortable family living. The property has a characterful exterior, with its classic Victorian architecture and distinctive features. Stepping inside, you'll find yourself immediately drawn to the heart of the home; an attractive fitted kitchen/diner, thoughtfully designed for modern living, this space offers the perfect blend of functionality and style. The property also boasts gardens to the front and rear; the rear garden is designed in an easy-to-manage patio style, offering a low-maintenance space, perfect for hosting summer barbecues. One of the most enticing features of the property is the fact that it comes with no onward chain, streamlining the buying process. For those who rely on public transport, the location is very convenient, you will find bus routes and a tram link ensuring easy access to nearby areas. Additionally, Norwood Junction BR/Overground Station with its frequent train services to London is also well within reach, providing quick and easy connectivity for commuters. The vendor has just had a damp proof course carried out with a guarantee.
