Portland Road, London, SE25 4UN

This generously proportioned end-of-terrace family residence offers an unexpectedly spacious interior that truly demands an in-person visit to fully grasp its size. The fully equipped kitchen features an inviting family breakfast room that seamlessly connects to the rear garden through bi-folding doors, making it a perfect space for gatherings plus there are two further separate reception rooms ideal for relaxing. On the first and second floors the property boasts four bedrooms and three well-appointed bathrooms, including an exceptional main family bathroom. The first bedroom is adorned with fitted wardrobes, enhancing the convenience and organisation of the space. You'll find convenience at your doorstep with nearby shops and amenities, while Norwood Junction BR/Overground Station offers frequent and efficient train connections to London. In addition, multiple bus routes and the tram link at Harrington Road provide further transportation options for easy commuting. Nestled just down the road is the renowned local beauty of the Country Park, perfect for leisurely strolls and outdoor activities. We understand the boundary of the rear garden is as per the ordnance survey map shown and that the cabin is also not included in the sale (please ask for further details). To fully appreciate the allure and potential of this remarkable family home, early viewing is highly recommended.
