Hallcroft Avenue Overseal,
Derbyshire, DE12 6JF

Guide Price: £675,000

A unique and beautifully presented courtyard home, completed in 2003 and forming part of an exclusive development of just four properties created within the original grounds of the adjoining Grade II listed Overseal Manor House.

Set within a highly regarded National Forest village and enjoying views across open parkland to the front, the property offers 2275sqft of well-proportioned accommodation including dual aspect living room, separate study and a re-fitted bespoke kitchen arranged in an open-plan kitchen/dining layout, ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. Externally, the home further benefits from secure courtyard parking, double garage and a stunning L-shaped landscaped garden plot featuring multiple seating areas, raised beds and well-established planting, making it particularly appealing to the keen garden enthusiast.

Viewing is highly recommended.

Location

Overseal is a well-regarded and sought-after National Forest village, offering a strong sense of community alongside everyday amenities including local shops, a primary school, public house and countryside walks on the doorstep. The village is particularly well placed for commuters, with excellent road links via the A444, A42 and M42 providing access to major centres including Ashby-de-la-Zouch, Burton upon Trent, Tamworth and Birmingham. A wider range of shopping, leisure and schooling options can be found in nearby Ashby-de-la-Zouch and Burton upon Trent, with rail connections available from both Burton and Tamworth. The surrounding National Forest countryside further enhances the appeal, offering a blend of village living with accessible transport connections.

Travel distances (approx.):

Ashby-de-la-Zouch – 4 miles
Tamworth – 7 miles
Lichfield – 12 miles
East Midlands Airport – 12 miles
Birmingham Airport – 28 miles
Burton upon Trent Railway Station – 6 miles

Agents Comments

Properties such as The Farriers rarely come to the market. Tucked away within the former grounds of Overseal Manor House, this is a home that offers privacy, character and versatility in equal measure. The secure courtyard setting, generous and adaptable accommodation and beautifully landscaped L-shaped garden make it particularly appealing, while the outlook across open parkland and the convenience of village amenities close by complete what is a very special offering within the National Forest.

Accommodation - Ground Floor

The front door opens into a welcoming entrance hallway featuring a solid oak staircase rising to the first floor. To the right, double opening doors lead into the dual aspect living room, a bright and well-proportioned space enjoying views to both the front and rear. Also off the hallway are a study, ideal for home working, and a WC positioned for everyday convenience. To the rear of the property lies the impressive open-plan kitchen and dining room, fitted with a bespoke re-fitted kitchen and arranged to create a sociable and practical space for modern living. This area benefits from two external doors providing direct access out to the garden. A matching fitted utility room sits alongside the kitchen, offering additional storage and practicality, together with internal access through to the garage and the secure courtyard beyond.

First Floor

The recently installed staircase rises from the entrance hallway to a first-floor landing, giving access to all four bedrooms and the family bathroom. The principal bedroom is a generous and well-appointed space, benefitting from its own dressing area and a large four piece en-suite bathroom. Bedroom two also enjoys the benefit of an en-suite shower room, making it ideal for guests or older family members. The remaining two bedrooms are both well-proportioned and offer flexibility for family use, guests or home working if required, all served by the separate family bathroom.

Ground Floor

Approx. 111.8 sq. metres (1203.6 sq. feet)

First Floor

Approx. 99.7 sq. metres (1073.3 sq. feet)

Total area: approx. 211.5 sq. metres (2276.9 sq. feet)

Outside, Gardens and Grounds

Overseal Manor Stables is set well back from the road and approached via a long private driveway, leading to a secure gated entrance into the courtyard which provides parking for several vehicles, together with access to the double garage. In addition, there is a lawned area positioned between Hallcroft Avenue and the walled garden, with a pedestrian-only gate providing convenient access. A particular feature of the property is its stunning L-shaped landscaped garden, which has been thoughtfully designed to create a variety of distinct seating and entertaining areas, interspersed with raised beds, well-stocked borders and attractive planting, making it ideal for the keen garden enthusiast. The garden enjoys a high degree of privacy and offers interest and colour throughout the seasons.
