High Street

Former Market Town of Cricklade

Cricklade is a historic former market town in North Wiltshire and ideally placed for the neighbouring A419. Cricklade is also known as the first town on the Thames and boasts a bustling high street with a variety of amenities. The nationally renowned North Water Meadow is close by with the snake headed fritillaries that bloom annually. This has been classified as a SSSI & NNR (Site of Special Scientific Interest & National Nature reserve).
