“The stone built farmhouse stands proud in the 1.015 acres of grounds. The gardens are picturesque with lovely countryside views, but also the option to be self-sufficient with a large vegetable garden, chicken coop and composting area. But to reinstate the swimming pool in the secret garden would be absolutely marvellous.”

Redlands Farm, a charming stone farmhouse, is steeped in history, believed to have been built in 1580, with subsequent extensions over the years. Nestled within 1.015 acres of picturesque countryside, the property enjoys breath-taking rural views and offers immense potential, including the possibility of reinstating a swimming pool. The main house boasts generous and versatile accommodation, spanning approximately 4500 sqft. With 10 bedrooms, 10 bathrooms, two reception rooms, a refitted kitchen breakfast area, a laundry room, utility room, and a cellar with two chambers, this home provides ample space for comfortable living. The grounds feature a detached building comprising four garage spaces and three versatile workshops/stores/stables. Additionally, there is a spacious barn, an allotment area, well-maintained formal gardens, a chicken pen, and a large parking area. This exceptional property is offered for sale with no chain, presenting a unique opportunity to own a piece of history in a serene countryside setting.

Next door to Redlands Park, an over 55's park home development.

Note: The current owners are running an eight bedroomed bed & breakfast business. So also the option to continue that business and also to grow that business.
