Its in the detail...

This is the very definition of a 'Picture Perfect' countryside residence—steeped in history and brimming with character. Dating back to 1861 the home has been lovingly modernised and extended but retains its original ambiance and uniqueness.

Ground Floor

Step inside to a welcoming entrance hall that sets the tone for the elegance within. To the left is the sitting room which offers a comfortable and quiet design with a multi fuel burner for the colder months and original beams and windows. The open plan kitchen and dining room serves as the heart of the home with a beautifully extended garden room and bi-fold doors perfect for indoor outdoor living in the warmer months. A guest cloakroom/WC is available for added convenience.

First Floor

Stairs rise from the entrance hall where three double bedrooms, the master with a showstopping en-suite, continue the homes cohesive design theme. a generous family bathroom also serves this level.

Second Floor

A second staircase ascends to the top floor with a fourth double bedroom with an ensuite shower room, offering a sanctuary of luxury and comfort, and a fifth generously sized single bedroom.

Outside

The charming enclosed rear garden is perfect for summer entertaining with two spacious seating areas and a lawned area ideal for sunbathing or enjoying a quiet read. To the front there is a gravel driveway with parking for two vehicles plus a separate garage across the road with a second parking space in front and in very close proximity to the property.
