Garden, Grounds & Outbuildings

The property itself is set within a plot of about 1.2 acres in total. It is approached from the lane over Stalling Down Common via a tarmac driveway and, through a gated entrance, onto a block paved forecourt parking area. The paving extends to the southerly side of the house and continues to the front entrance doorway and also to the garage. The detached double garage (approx. max. 6.8m x 5.25m) has power connected and twin electric roller shutter doors. A broad, gated entrance to the side of the garage leads through to the northern side of the property with conservatory rear entrance doorway looking out over garden space. This garden includes additional large storage shed and a timber summer house looking over the lawn and the adjacent wildlife pond. A swimming pool has a paved surround and a brick-built cabin including filtration/heating equipment.

Beyond the garden spaces are two paddock areas with a central stabling area dividing the two. The timber stabling requires attention but offers a sizeable, extensive space to the heart of the plot and from which to access both the paddock areas. The second of the two paddocks runs towards the far western boundary hedges and has been used in the past for a paddock, for keeping chicken and includes a small orchard

Total area: approx. 298.3 sq. metres (3211.2 sq. feet)
