SITUATION

Graig Penllyn is an active, lively community of attractive old and new properties scattered either side of a wooded valley. Local facilities include picturesque playing fields, a children's play park, tennis courts and a popular public house, The Barley Mow. In the neighbouring village of Penllyn there is a recently reopened Public House and reputable restaurant 'The Fox' and village hall. A well regarded primary school is located in the nearby village of Llangan; it is a 'feeder' school for Cowbridge Comprehensive: a School bus takes the children to and from the 'Comp'.

The market town of Cowbridge provides excellent facilities including Waitrose and a wide variety of shops, a library, health centre and a range of sport and recreation facilities including squash club, tennis club, cricket club, sports centre, etc.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Interested parties are advised to check for themselves the availability of services.

Freehold plot subject to a Section 106 agreement; the contribution is £27,770.40 which would be payable by the developer unless "the self-build exemption is triggered".

There is a restrictive covenant listed in the title deed not to "erect upon the property any other dwelling house or building" without consent from the Council. However, the Vale Of Glamorgan council will consider removal of this covenant at a cost of £27,560 payable by the buyer.

Any maps and floor plans included in these sales particulars are not accurate or drawn to scale and are intended only to help prospective purchasers visualise the layout of the property. They do not form any part of any contract.
