Summary of Accommodation

ABOUT THE PROPERTY

The refurbishment and sleek addition to this 17th century stone cottage was designed by a Chartered architect who brought their vision to life over the last 12 years. With retaining original features such as the three fireplaces and part of the old stone staircase, and merging robust materials such as metal, limestone and local stone to ensure energy efficiency was to the forefront of this re-model. The existing cottage is connected to the 21st century addition by unique glazing which allows natural light to flood through the heart of the home, and seamlessly connects to the landscaped gardens - cleverly combining much-appreciated indoor/outdoor living.

A gated side access with limestone paved area leads to the entrance for The Glebe. A light-filled porch area with exposed staircase leading to the first floor landing, with the main living areas to either side. Throughout the ground floor is 'Junkers' sold oak parquet flooring with underfloor heating beneath.

To the very heart of this contemporary home is the open-plan kitchen-dining-living space, a simply stunning space to entertain with glass roof connecting the old with the new, and overlooks the gardens with full height glass window. The handle-less kitchen has been fitted by 'Adam Elliot' a local bespoke kitchen expert with sold oak lined handmade cabinets and drawers. To include; two double-opening larders and large central island with breakfast bar area, Quartz tops and waterfall edging. A range of 'Miele' appliances to remain to include; steam / combi oven, electric double oven, warmer drawer and 5-ring induction hob. Plus two 'Fisher and Paykel' dishwashing drawers and fridge/freezer to remain. From here there are double doors opening out to the limestone patio, and a glass balustrade with oak staircase leads to the lower ground floor. To the living area, a central feature is the original recess for the back to back fireplace with bread oven, and a shuttered window looks to the front lane.

The lower ground living room enjoys the most stunning view over the gardens and further beyond countryside, and is a peaceful reception space. From here is a useful utility space with additional storage cupboards, plumbing for a washing machine, and access is provided to the garden. Also, a wet-room has been cleverly designed with this space fitted with Mandarin Stone tiling.

From the ground floor hallway, adjacent to the open-place living, lies the lounge. Fitted with a bay-window overlooking the rear grounds and with central feature deep stone original fireplace with free-standing 'Topstak' wood burning stove. The original stone (part) staircase is featured here, to the side of the chimney breast.

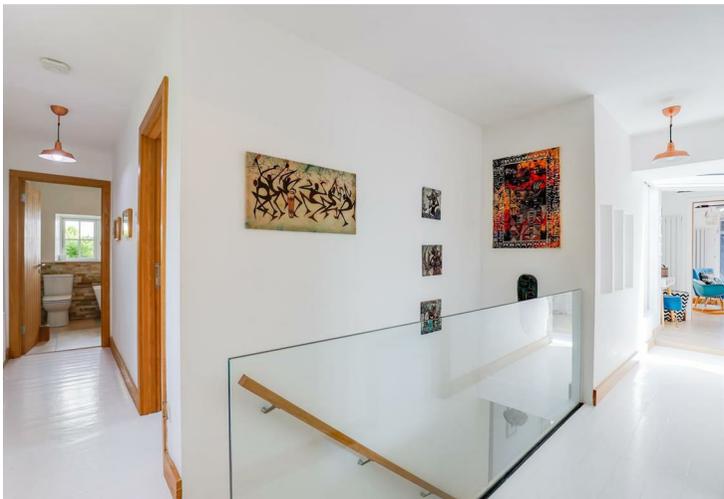

ABOUT THE PROPERTY CONTINUED

A staircase from the hallway with glass balustrading leads to the first floor landing with loft hatch providing access to a boarded loft space with pull-down ladder.

There are four double bedrooms to this floor; two with luxurious en-suites, whilst the other two bedrooms have shared use of the family bathroom fitted with 'Porcelanosa' tiling. The principal suite offers the 'Wow' factor with its own walk-through dressing area, with fitted storage, and vaulted ceiling with full height glass pane overlooking the rear south-facing aspect. Double doors from here leads onto a Scandinavian composite decked terrace which is a private place to enjoy. The en-suite has been designed with relaxation in mind, with whirlpool dual-ended bath neatly positioned under a glass roof panel, fitted with a contemporary suite and 'Porcelanosa' tiling.

LOCATION

Llanblethian has long been regarded as one of the Vale of Glamorgan's foremost residential areas offering as it does a very pretty village-style setting with a combination of individual old and new houses and narrow winding streets. The Market Town of Cowbridge is adjoining and offers an excellent range of individual shops, boutiques, restaurants, pubs and cafes and is home to a centrally positioned Waitrose store. Further services include a health centre, leisure centre, various sporting clubs, public library and Old Hall Community Centre. There are also local primary and secondary schools within the town itself.

GARDENS AND GROUNDS

In the centre of Llanblethian, The Glebe has private driveway parking directly in-front of the integral garage with 'Hormann' automatic electric door and car charging point to remain. There is lockable access to the kitchen-living area from here.

The garden is accessed from the front lane through lockable timber gate and high stone walling, and has been completely landscaped to offer several 'garden rooms' to enjoy the south-facing aspect. With quality limestone paving centred around a large lawn and sleeper steps lead to a broad deck to the lower level with access to the Nant Llanblethian brook. The garden features a mature Maple tree and established evergreen foliage - making this a private and tranquil space to enjoy and entertain, and enjoying a lovely view of the property itself.

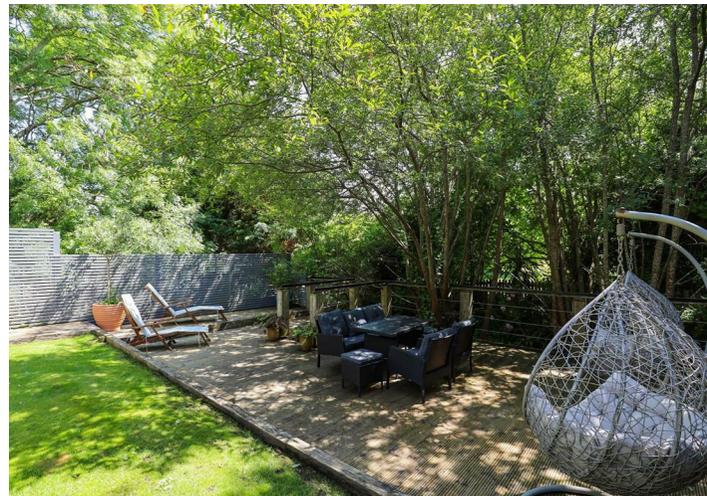

Also for the keen veg grower, there is a green house to remain and a recently re-roofed stone built potting shed.
