Summary of Accommodation

ABOUT THE PROPERTY

The Granary has been recently and most thoughtfully converted using quality materials. It is now superb family home in a unique location, thought to be within yards of the birthplace of Iolo Morganwg and enjoying panoramic views over the same inspiring landscape he would have enjoyed.

From an entrance hallway, travertine tiling extends into both the principal family lounge and into the kitchen-living-dining room.

All the main living and bedrooms have exposed beams and pitched ceilings, all have underfloor heating, bespoke Oak doors and all look onto the forecourt.

The family lounge has two sets of bi-fold doors opening to the forecourt; an additional set of doors open to the paved patio garden with the lawned garden beyond.

The kitchen itself is a stunning space, including contemporary Corian-topped units with matching island and fully integrated NEFF appliances.

There is also a cloakroom and separate utility room housing a range of units and the LPG boiler.

All of the four bedrooms and good double rooms.

Both the largest bedroom and the second bedroom have ensuite wet rooms fitted with contemporary suites and with walk-in showers.

The other two bedrooms have use of the luxury family bathroom, again fitted with a contemporary suite with bath, walk-in shower and matching twin basins.

GARDENS AND GROUNDS

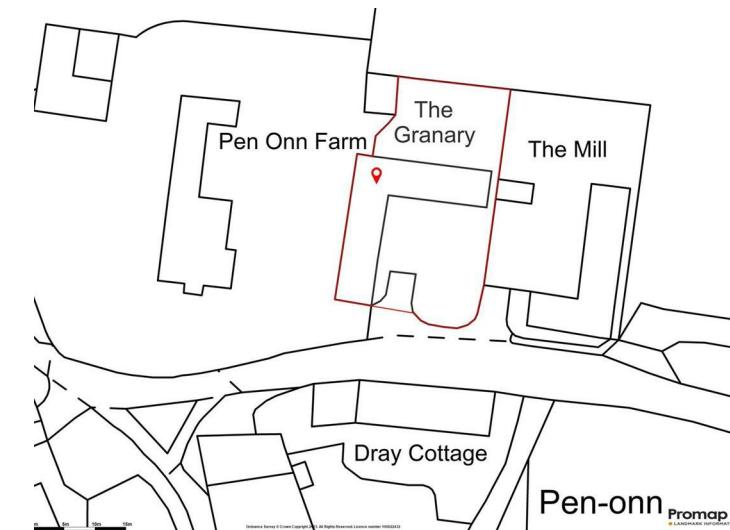

Double width, electric gates lead to the south facing forecourt fronting the property. This large space is screened from the road frontage by stone walling. It includes ample parking and an area of lawn.

To the rear of the property is a flagstone paved patio accessed from both the living room and the kitchen. This in turn opens out onto a much larger lawn with stunning views over surrounding farmland towards Llancarfan village.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Freehold. Mains electric and water connect to the property. LPG central heating. Underfloor heating throughout. Council tax: Band H
