Summary of Accommodation

About The Property

This charming three-bedroom stone cottage, set in the heart of the Vale of Glamorgan village of St Athan, has been thoughtfully and extensively renovated in recent years. The property is beautifully presented throughout, blending character features with modern comforts, and further benefits from a two-bedroom detached annex.

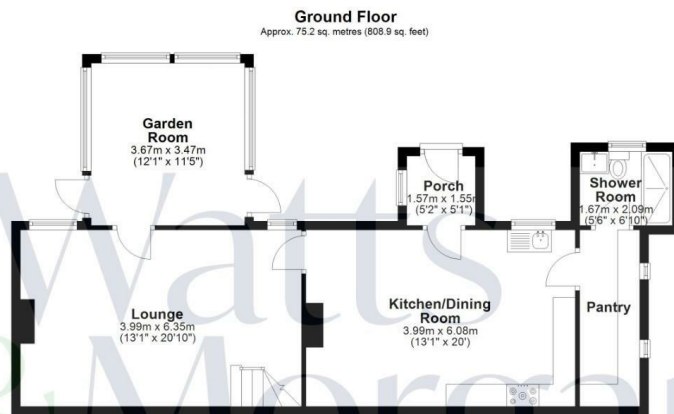

To the front of the property is off-road parking, with entry via a traditional stable door leading into a porch and then through to the kitchen. The heart of the home, the kitchen features sage-green shaker-style cabinetry with wood-effect worktops, a range oven, integrated dishwasher, and wine cooler. Adjacent to the kitchen is a cosy sitting area with an exposed brick fireplace and log burner, also large enough to accommodate a dining table.

A spacious pantry room with a shower room/WC lies beyond the kitchen, while the main lounge offers a calm, inviting space with another striking exposed brick fireplace and log burner. From here leads into the garden room – a versatile reception space currently used as a formal dining room, filled with natural light from its surrounding windows and glazed doors.

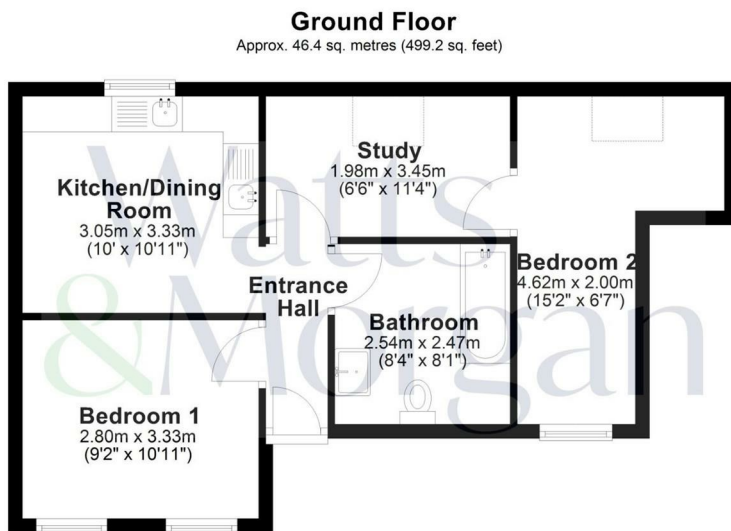

Upstairs, three generously sized bedrooms feature character details such as exposed beams and Velux windows. A recently added family bathroom completes the first floor, beautifully appointed with a freestanding bath and separate shower.

The detached annex offers excellent versatility, comprising two bedrooms, a family bathroom, kitchen, and a separate study.

Total area: approx. 128.5 sq. metres (1383.7 sq. feet)

Total area: approx. 46.4 sq. metres (499.2 sq. feet)

Garden & Grounds

The cottage enjoys a delightful, well-established garden with a mix of lawned areas, mature apple trees, and raised beds currently planted with raspberries and vegetables. A large shed house remains in situ, ideal for storage. To one side of the garden, a patio area with a stone-built coal BBQ creates the perfect setting for al fresco dining and entertaining.
