About The Property

A stone-built, Victorian cottage nestled in the heart of Llandow village with countryside views to the rear aspect.

The entrance porch presents space for cloaks and shoes and leads directly into the lounge.

The lounge is a generous reception space, with central feature log burner stove. This cosy room offers an outlook to the front aspect onto the Village lane.

From the lounge, a door opens into the kitchen-dining room which is a lovely space to entertain and connects to the garden via the utility/boot room. The kitchen is fitted with a range of painted pine base units with laminate work surfaces, and a range of integral appliances to include; inset double oven, grill and electric hob. Also, a stainless steel sink unit with broad window overlooking the garden. A focal point to this room is the original working coal-fired Victorian Range with tiled hearth and wooden mantle. Also on offer is a large understairs storage cupboard plus a walk-in pantry which provides useful storage.

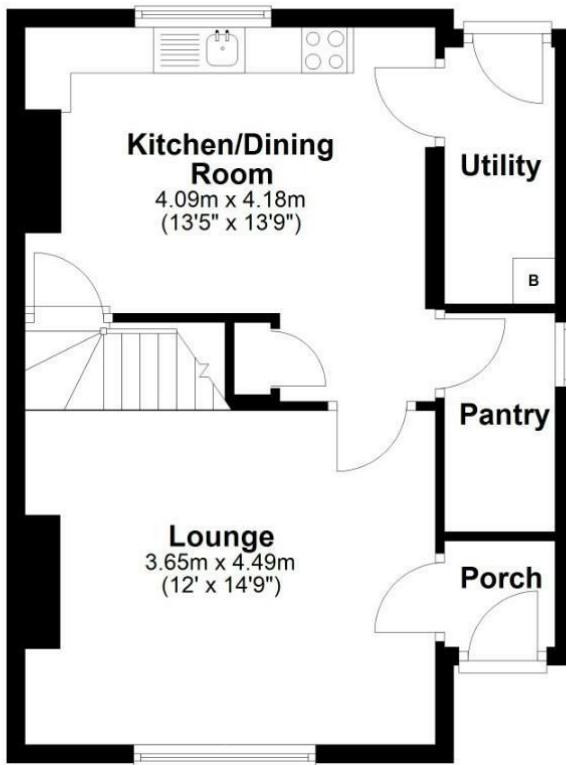

From the kitchen, an enclosed staircase leads to the first floor. This floor presents two generous double bedrooms and a 4-piece bathroom with separate bath and corner shower enclosure.

The rear bedroom enjoys wonderful countryside views.

Garden & Grounds

Positioned just off the Village lane, with nearby children's play park, sits 1 Railway Cottages. A stepped footpath leads to the front entrance porch, with lawned and paved frontage, leading directly to the rear garden. The sizeable rear garden is predominately laid to lawn, fully enclosed by stone wall and offers a range of stone built outbuildings (in need of attention). Also, a lean-to greenhouse to remain. Beyond the garden wall is farm fields, which offers a lovely outlook and a south-westerly aspect.

Subject to planning permissions, there is ample space to create off-road driveway parking, but there is plenty of nearby on-road parking.
