Stepping through the front door, you are greeted by a welcoming entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor. To the right is the bright and cozy living room, featuring a charming fireplace with a gas fire, high ceilings, and intricate coving details that add to the home's character.

Across the hall, the spacious dining room accommodates a large dining table and boasts an open brick fireplace with an attractive copper hood, creating a perfect setting for family gatherings and entertaining.

From the dining room, you enter the well-proportioned modern kitchen, equipped with a range of integrated appliances and ample storage.

The kitchen also provides access to the recently added ground-floor wet room, designed for modern convenience.

Upstairs, the property offers three bedrooms. The generous master bedroom spans the width of the house above the lounge and features a delightful reading nook or balcony area overlooking the stairs — a unique and inviting space.

The second bedroom includes built-in wardrobes providing excellent storage, while the third bedroom, a comfortable single, sits adjacent to the family bathroom.

The rear garden is a true gardener's paradise, beautifully maintained and complete with a vegetable patch and greenhouse — ideal for those who enjoy outdoor living and cultivating their own produce.

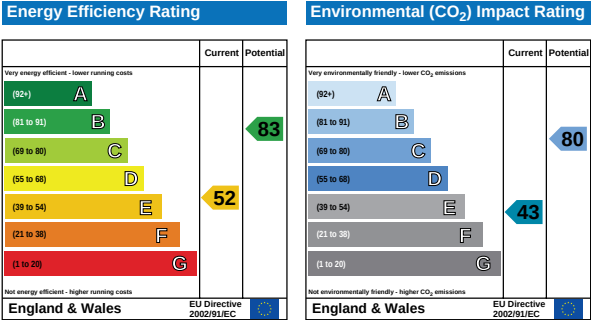

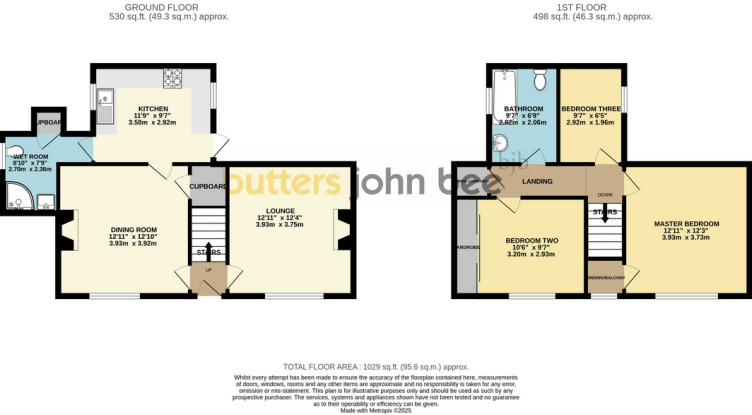

Gnosall is a vibrant and desirable village, with the Shropshire Union Canal running through its heart. The village offers a range of well-established inns and eateries, a high street filled with independent shops, a supermarket, and a scenic cycle path linking Newport and Stafford.

A well-regarded primary school serves the community, with secondary schooling available in nearby Stafford. Excellent transport links include a regular bus service to Stafford, Newport, and Telford, while Stafford's mainline railway station provides fast and frequent services to Manchester, Birmingham, and London Euston.
