Fair to say, this room, together with the second floor, require upgrading, albeit in different scales of application. The top or second floor, is where the opportunity to continue the gloriously and impeccably good taste of refurbishment especially lies. Here there are three interconnecting rooms; a reception room, a bedroom, a dressing room and en suite in the making.

We trust you can depict a fair amount of suitable aspects of decor of the original, for us not to need to list; rather for you to identify and have reconfirmed in their fullness with a 'live' viewing. Floor boards, architrave, cornice and more besides. . . .

Taking you outdoors and to the garden plot. Set well back and elevated from Talbot Road, thus noise pollution is minimised. Elevation, depth of plot and natural screening being the contributors. A drive leads up to a parking bay area for a number of vehicles. Gardens lie to the front, west facing. There is a single garage which is attached together with store room.
