

No room is 'squeezed' or compromised for another. Each space is well proportioned and generous. First we have a substantial entrance porch, which offers pvc sliding door access to a private side yard area. A hall (with cloakroom suite) leads on to two impressive separate reception rooms, living room and formal dining room as well as to a morning room (again there is access to the side yard from here), which links directly to a significant family kitchen diner.

This rear facing room is very well presented and finished. A good lighting system enhances the overall impact of this generously appointed family kitchen. There is access directly to the patio and garden from here.

Up at first floor are three hugely impressive double bedrooms, the master suite of which is located to the rear (views to the south facing garden) and having a bank of fitted wardrobes, together with en suite facilities. The second bedroom, again rear facing, also has an en suite shower room. The front bedroom comes with a range of built in wardrobes. adjacent to which is the main bathroom.

Access to the loft is via a fold away ladder. The loft space is all well boarded and the height, breadth and width, make this an excellent conversion opportunity for further living accommodation. The gas central heating boiler is wall mounted and located here. You will also notice paraphernalia for the south facing solar roof panels here. This system makes a healthy contribution to electricity costs.

Outdoors

You can see how the off road blocked paved parking bay offers parking for two cars, you can also see how well protected and screened the frontage is. To the rear is a nicely proportionate garden and patio; South facing and private making for a particularly pleasant outdoor family garden space.
