Howbeck Close, Prenton

This is a very attractive true bungalow and right away, we suggest it is so much bigger than it looks from the outside. There is for instance, a considerably large kitchen diner (larger than you would expect in most semi or detached bungalows); a fabulous sitting room with access to a splendid conservatory (with new reflector of light coated roof); a smart shower room and two bedrooms. Very importantly, the bungalow's very attractive and private garden faces south. It comes with gas central heating, pvc double glazing and an integral garage.

Howbeck Close is a cul de sac comprising of 'larger than they look' two bedroomed bungalows. Our client has thoroughly enjoyed their time here for its peace and quiet location, yet its easy access to the bus service which runs along Shrewsbury Road, into Cloughton Village and Oxton Village. They will undoubtedly miss their much loved south facing garden and conservatory too.

The main hub of the bungalow likely lies within the very spacious kitchen come dining room - a real surprise to find such a room within a bungalow. The sitting room is a generous square shape with ample room for plenty of your furniture if you're thinking of downsizing from your current home.

An altogether quiet, surprising bungalow in a very pleasant location in Oxton.
