The main working kitchen itself is comprehensive and smart whilst there is a cloakroom suite that services the ground floor accommodation. Up at first floor are three bedrooms, two great double sized rooms with the main front bedroom having wall to wall 'robes' - this floor has a fab combined bathroom suite. A suite comprises both double shower cubicle and a free standing bath. Altogether a really great size of a bathroom.

Returning outdoors and you can see how there's parking for three to four cars to the front. You can also hopefully also appreciate the size of the garden plot - a garden larger than average for a traditional semi within this postcode. Of course what you'll need to do is come and take a look and see for yourself. Not just to confirm how fabulous the outdoor space is but to appreciate all that this very well presented internal accommodation has to offer too.

Then of course we need to talk about Tilstock Crescent. An historically very popular road within Prenton for various reasons. It's quiet, it's not a 'through road' as such and so little passing traffic; it's tree lined and it stands so central, to Prenton and all the usual amenities you'd expect.
