Guide Price
£135,000

This is a handsome and considerably spacious three bedroomed terraced house for sale with a fabulous large south facing enclosed rear yard. With a traditional layout including a hall to two fine reception rooms, there is also a family sized kitchen with ample room enough for a breakfast table. At first floor there are three bedrooms including a particularly large 'master' bedroom suite - with open aspect views from the front bay windows together with a combined bathroom.

The property has gas central heating, double glazing and is vacant for immediate viewings. There is no onward 'property chain' to this house purchase.

Adelaide Road is a road set well back from the main roads of Woodchurch Road and Borough Road and is a comparatively much quieter road with very little traffic and with properties standing to one side of the road only. (See street view)

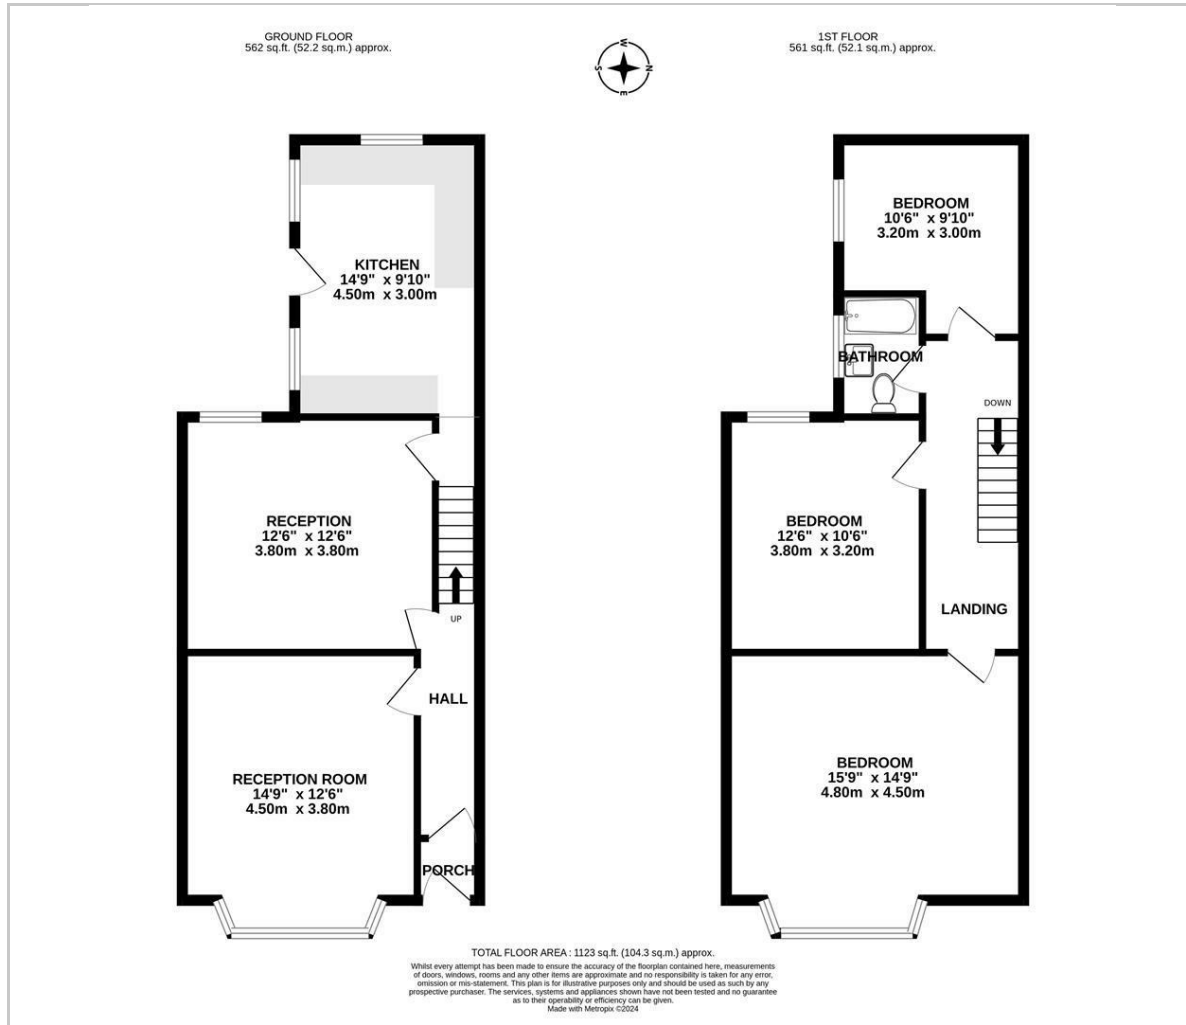

Adelaide Road is a short street off the beaten track a little, as it were. Little through traffic passes and property stands to one side (sunny side) of the street only. This is another attraction we say of this 'starter' home. For directions please Sat Nav: CH42 9NJ
