This is a hugely attractive traditional semi with a variety features to look out for during your first visit. In no particular order we would point out the fabulous view across to Liverpool; the long block paved drive to the garage for a couple of cars; the particularly spacious square hall (with Christmas and especially the Xmas tree in mind); a significantly spacious and very appealing rear reception room together with a kitchen with garden view and skylights.

Up at first floor are three noticeably bright bedrooms (see both garden and skyline view photos) service by a bathroom with separate loo. The stairs and landing to first floor is an attractive area too.

The location of this fine house, sensibly price in our view, appreciating some updating to be done, is central. Central that is to schools, including a short walk to St Anselm's College; to Birkenhead Park and to the tunnel for a quick dart to the city for work or pleasure.

In conclusion, a fab opportunity, a fab family house, a great spot AND note please that there is no onward chain and so no unnecessary delays for this purchase...We are key holders so please call us to view.
