On the instructions of our clients, this development opportunity comes for sale with a Guide Price of £975,000. This is an especially rare opportunity to acquire a pair of four storey Victorian semi detached houses set in substantial gardens with the site extending to approximately 0.804 Acres (3256 sqm). The properties are in a poor state of disrepair and comprise approximately total floor area of 1040 sqm, (11,110 sq. ft.) The site location sits within the Oxtan Conservation Area and in close proximity to Oxtan Village.

1 & 3 Shrewsbury Road, CH43 1UU, comprises a large pair of mid Victorian four storey semi detached house in a very poor state of disrepair. They stand on substantial garden plots with a combined total area of approx. 0.8 acres. There are separate entrances and driveways to both No.1 & No.3. A detached outbuilding stands to the rear boundary of the site. Given the conservation status, we expect TPOs to be in force.

For clarification, no form of planning has been applied for for these two freehold dwellings. We understand the properties are not listed buildings. They are within the Oxtan Conservation Area.

The properties sit along Shrewsbury Road, close to the junction of Palm Hill and Columbia Road, both leading to Oxtan Village, just a few minutes walk. Access to the tunnel for Liverpool is a five to ten minute car journey whilst Birkenhead School (Co-ed); BHSA for girls and St Saviour's Primary School are all very close by. For you Sat Nav: CH43 1UU
