The internal layout is practical and well-proportioned. To the rear, the sitting room is a welcoming space with direct access into the conservatory, allowing natural light to flow in while offering views of the garden beyond. The kitchen is fitted with a range of units and provides a functional workspace with scope for improvement. Off the kitchen is a useful store room with external doors to both the front and rear, providing particularly convenient access for day-to-day living.

There are four bedrooms served by a family bathroom and an additional cloakroom. A practical feature is the double-width storage cupboard in the hallway, providing ample space for coats, shoes, or household items.

Outside, the bungalow is set within a wonderful, south-facing rear garden. Fully enclosed and mainly laid to lawn, the space is both peaceful and private, a true blank canvas for the new owner to enjoy. Its sunny aspect makes it ideal for gardening enthusiasts, outdoor entertaining, or simply relaxing in the warmth of the sun throughout the day. The property is well-equipped with gas central heating, the boiler having been renewed in 2019 and regularly serviced since. To the front, a driveway provides off-road parking and leads to a detached garage with a recently installed new door, ensuring both secure storage and additional parking are well catered for.

The location itself is a significant highlight. Owers Way is a peaceful setting yet conveniently placed for access to both East and West Wittering, with their popular shops, cafes, and highly regarded primary school. The famous sandy beaches of West Wittering are within easy reach, offering one of the South Coast's most cherished natural assets right on your doorstep.
