Stunning three bedroom detached family home situated in a quiet residential location.

This fantastic three bedroom detached home is perfect for any family looking for their ideal residence. Situated in a lovely, quiet residential area, this home has been tastefully refurbished to a high and modern standard by the current owners, ensuring a contemporary living experience with modern décor throughout.

The spacious through lounge/diner is a standout feature, offering ample space for entertaining. The charming arch entrance between the lounge and dining areas adds character, while double patio doors lead to a terraced entertaining area outside, perfect for alfresco dining during the summer months.

The recently fitted kitchen boasts integrated appliances and a sleek, wipe-clean glossy veneer finish on the units. The modern tiling complements the high-specification design, creating a clean and stylish space.

The hall off the living room provides access to a downstairs wc and the integral garage, which can be used for extra storage, and the property benefits from its own driveway. A beautiful galleried landing with a feature arched window adds an unexpected touch of elegance, transforming what is typically a simple corridor into a bright and inviting space.
