Well-Presented Two Bedroom Semi-Detached Home with Generous Garden & Workshop – Fantastic Central Location in Ore Village

An increasingly rare opportunity to purchase a freehold two-bedroom semi-detached house at this price point. Perfectly positioned just moments from the heart of Ore Village, this well-maintained home is within walking distance of local shops, amenities, and an Aldi supermarket – making it a highly convenient and desirable choice for a wide range of buyers.

The accommodation is thoughtfully arranged, beginning with a welcoming entrance hall leading to a fitted kitchen, a separate utility cupboard, and a ground floor bathroom suite. To the rear, the spacious reception room features a fireplace recess and enjoys lovely views over the garden, with direct access into the conservatory, offering additional living space.

Upstairs, you'll find two well-proportioned bedrooms, ideal for both homeowners and investors alike.

Externally, the property benefits from a generous rear garden with a brick-built workshop, providing excellent potential for storage, hobbies, or even conversion to a home office.

Additional features include gas central heating, double glazing, and excellent transport links nearby, with regular bus routes and easy road access.
