A Rare Garden Lover's Gem in Fairlight

Tucked away in the idyllic semi-rural village of Fairlight, this charming two-bedroom bungalow offers so much more than a home – it's a sanctuary. With off-road parking and a private driveway, it's perfectly placed for country walks and cosy local pubs, yet it is the gardens that truly steal the show. Wrapping around the entire property, the gardens are nothing short of enchanting – a living, breathing masterpiece that could grace the pages of any garden lover's magazine. From vibrant exotic plants to mature shrubs and majestic trees, every corner reveals a new delight. Banana trees sway gently in the breeze, while bursts of colour and texture create an ever-changing backdrop through the seasons. Whether you dream of morning coffee among the flowers, afternoons spent pottering with the plants, or summer evenings entertaining beneath the trees, this garden offers a lifestyle as inspiring as it is tranquil. The bungalow itself provides two well-proportioned bedrooms, a modern kitchen and bathroom, and a useful rear extension, creating a warm and versatile home. But it is the setting – a rare marriage of house and garden – that makes this property a true gem. For those who long for a home that feels like a retreat, surrounded by nature yet within a welcoming village, this is an opportunity not to be missed.
