The Old Barrack Inn, Whatlington Road, Battle, TN33 0JN

Situated in a rarely available and highly desirable location is this substantial detached period property dating back to the 1700's, which has been sympathetically extended and improved over the years by the present owners and is set in approximately 0.87 acres enjoying magnificent rural views.

The versatile accommodation benefits from a wealth of delightful original internal period features and comprises an entrance porch with double oak doors, entrance hall with original brick courtyard now forming the flooring. A triple aspect sitting room with an inglenook fireplace, attractive wood panelled drawing room, kitchen, conservatory, utility room, cloakroom and cellar. To the first and second floor there are 4/5 bedrooms with the master benefiting from a dressing area and en-suite, along with an en-suite to the guest bedroom, a family bathroom, study and the attic hobbies room/fifth bedroom.

Outside the property is further enhanced by a newly laid driveway, recently constructed double garage, a timber home office and a detached timber spa housing a sauna, shower, toilet and hot tub. All set within stunning mature gardens that overlook the neighbouring countryside, whilst only being a short distance from the bustling High Street, mainline station serving London Charing Cross and excellent local state and private schools.
