Property

Entering 1 Church Terrace via the front door we are welcomed via the sitting room where the feeling of space and superb amounts of natural light that flow through the home are instantly apparent. Our eye is drawn to the impressive red brick open fire place which houses the wood burner and offers a cosy focal point to the room. A large sash window looks to the front and fills the room with light which bounces off the timber flooring. A latch and brace door open to the kitchen diner. This delightful kitchen offers a range of fitted units that contrast against the Suffolk paments underfoot. Space is made for comfortable dining and a door opens to the staircase. At the rear we step into a lobby area which leads out to the garden and internally to the ground floor lavatory. Climbing the stairs we step onto the first floor landing where doors open to both bedrooms and the bathroom. At the rear the smaller of the two double rooms enjoys a view of the rear garden. Adjacent the bathroom is fitted with a contemporary white suite offering a bath, w/c and wash basin. Completing the accommodation the master bedroom spans the front of the house and offers a delightful space complemented by exposed timber floorboards as we find throughout the first floor.

Outside

Pushing open the gate and stepping below the rose arch to the walled front garden the scene is instantly set. This delightful cottage garden provides a low maintenance space that is filled with colour and scent from the established shrubs and roses in place. A path leads us to the front door and into the cottage. At the rear we step from the lobby into the garden where an area of patio offers the perfect spot to relax in the sun. The patio leads onto the generous lawn which is framed with range of planted beds that fill the space with colour. Our oil tank is hidden behind a willow screen whilst at the foot of the space a timber shed and further paved & screened area offers storage. Access to the rear is gained via a right of way which crosses number 2.
