

Asgard Main Street, Comrie, KY12 9HD
Offers In The Region £220,000

Early entry available. Quietly tucked away off the Main Street is this generous detached bungalow circa 1960's with driveway for several vehicles leading to single car garage. The gardens are private with seating and patio areas. The subjects require some upgrading and briefly comprise entrance hall, lounge/dining area, breakfasting kitchen, four bedrooms, one of which could be used as an office/study and wet room. Large attic. The property is double glazed with gas central heating.

LOCATION

The property is situated in the popular West Fife village of Comrie which is proven to be a popular residential area with similar style properties and local shops and facilities are available in nearby Oakley. These include primary schooling and regular transportation into Dunfermline City centre which is approximately six miles away. Further extensive facilities can be found including the Kingsgate Shopping Centre, retail parks, secondary schooling, bus and railway stations. The Forth Bridges are close by making this area an ideal commuter base to most parts of central Scotland including the central motorway network around Falkirk and Stirling.
