Offers Over £475,000

We are delighted to bring to the market the opportunity to acquire this stunning 1930's family home spread over two levels. This impressive dwelling has remained in the family for decades having been individually designed and built by the present owner's grandfather. This bespoke property boasts a wealth of original art deco features of the period, which have been beautifully maintained over the years, combining a piece of the past with the present. The outdoor spaces are generous with a driveway and paved area leading to a large four car garage that could potentially be converted into either a home office suite, or a dwellinghouse for relatives/family. The gardens and grounds are beautifully maintained and well stocked with an abundance of plants, trees and herbaceous borders. They are fully enclosed providing a child and pet safe environment with secure gate giving access to adjacent field. Ideal for pet owners. The property benefits from a lovely summerhouse, an idyllic haven and an excellent home for entertaining outdoors. The accommodation is beautifully presented with quality flooring, fixtures and fittings throughout, briefly comprising entrance vestibule, reception hall with decorative cupola light, generous upstairs lounge currently used as a gym/family area, stylish breakfasting kitchen leading to family room. There are four double bedrooms with stunning four piece en-suite and separate shower room on the ground floor. The garage is fully serviced with pitched roof, tiled flooring, power, light and plumbed with sink in situ. The property is double glazed with gas central heating.

LOCATION

The ancient capital of Dunfermline won its bid to have official status city in May 2022, as part of the civic honour's competition to celebrate the Queen's platinum jubilee. The City of Dunfermline is of considerable historic interest and is the resting place of King Robert the Bruce. Carnegie's Birthplace museum, the Abbey and Abbot House reflect the historic interest of the city, whilst recent developments have seen Dunfermline move into the modern era with Carnegie Museum and Library. Dunfermline is located approximately five miles from the Forth bridges and is therefore particularly popular with commuters to Edinburgh and many parts of the central belt with easy access to the M90 motorway with its direct links to Edinburgh, Perth and Dundee and across the Kincardine Bridge by way of motorways to Stirling, Glasgow and the West. It benefits from a full range of shops, social and leisure facilities and educational establishments. The local railway stations provide a regular service to Edinburgh with intercity links to other parts of the UK. There are regular and convenient bus services both local and national.
