PROPERTY

159 Halbeath Road, Dunfermline, KY11 4LF

Offers Over £290,000

Rarely available in today's market is this charming bungalow circa 1930's, situated a short walk to Queen Margaret train station and City Centre with all amenities and retail parks and transport links at your fingertips. This lovely home has the potential for further development if required. One of the main benefits is the driveway for several vehicles providing off street parking. There are well established gardens to the rear with a southerly aspect with mature plants, trees and shrubs providing an idyllic haven with privacy also including external storage and shed. The accommodation is generous throughout and briefly comprises entrance vestibule, reception hallway, lounge, kitchen, dining area, three double bedrooms (one being used as a dining room) and family bathroom. The property is double glazed with gas central heating and attic. Early entry available.

LOCATION

The ancient capital of Dunfermline won its bid to have official city status in May 2022, as part of the civic honour's competition to celebrate the Queen's platinum jubilee. The City of Dunfermline is of considerable historic interest and is the resting place of King Robert the Bruce. Carnegie's Birthplace museum, the Abbey and Abbot House reflect the historic interest of the city, whilst recent developments have seen Dunfermline move into the modern era with Carnegie Museum and Library. Dunfermline is located approximately five miles from the Forth bridges and is therefore particularly popular with commuters to Edinburgh and many parts of the central belt with easy access to the M90 motorway with its direct links to Edinburgh, Perth and Dundee and across the Kincardine Bridge by way of motorways to Stirling, Glasgow and the West. It benefits from a full range of shops, social and leisure facilities and educational establishments. The local railway stations provide a regular service to Edinburgh with intercity links to other parts of the UK. There are regular and convenient bus services both local and national.
