8 Old Rectory Gardens, Longborough, Gloucestershire, GL56 0QF

Guide Price £585,000, Freehold

Property Description

Positioned at the end of a quiet leafy cul-de-sac close to the centre of Longborough village and enjoying an excellent panorama to the rear over fields towards the Evenlode Valley, this stylishly appointed detached, two-storey, cottage style three bedroom dormer bungalow residence is recommended for inspection by those looking for the option of the living accommodation on one level with guest accommodation above.

The property has a through living and dining room with a homely woodburning stove and access through the conservatory to an easy to manage walled garden. The conservatory doubles as a utility area and is adjacent to a stylish well planned kitchen with some integrated appliances. The ground floor bedroom has its own ensuite shower room and an attractive view along Old Rectory Gardens.

At first floor level there are two double bedrooms with the second bedroom having an ensuite dressing room or study and enjoying the very best views in the property. There is a smart modern family bathroom also with an integrated shower.

Externally, the property has an attractively landscaped front garden with off-street parking for two vehicles in a tandem driveway.

Old Rectory Gardens is located to the south east of the village within walking distance of Longborough Opera House where there are promenade concerts throughout the summer and is a famous Cotswold event. The village has a public house and shop, primary school and is well positioned for outstanding walks in an area of outstanding natural beauty. There is an excellent walk to be enjoyed from Longborough past Sezincote House towards Bourton-on-the-Hill and The Horse and Groom, a renowned local eatery.

The village is located mid way between the market towns of Stow-on-the-Wold and Moreton-in-Marsh with the latter having its own railway station with links to Oxford and London Paddington.

Directions

From our Moreton-in-Marsh office, turn left continuing south along the Fosseway for approximately two miles, then turn right signposted for Longborough. Continue to the centre of the village, turning left in front of the school along the village High Street at the end of which the road veers round to the right. The entrance to Old Rectory Gardens is then on the right, continue through a series of mature trees and this property is then dead ahead at the end of the cul-de-sac.
