DESCRIPTION:

McIntyre & Company are delighted to bring 13, Farrow Drive to the market. Originally built around 1964 and extended in 1995 and 2000 to form a spacious family home that spans approximately 165sq m.

This beautifully presented property is located in the popular village of Corpach and sits in an elevated position enjoying lovely views to Loch Linnhe, Ben Nevis and the surrounding hillside.

This is a versatile semi-detached home that is spread over three floors and boasts substantial living accommodation to include 3 reception rooms, a modern bathroom and shower room. In addition to its beautiful surroundings the house further benefits from double glazing, oil fired heating that is supplemented by a feature fireplace to the sitting room and excellent storage through-out.

Majority of the white goods and garden furniture can be included in the sale price.

ACCOMMODATION: Entrance Porch, Inner Hallway, Study, Sitting Room, Lounge-Diner Room, Kitchen, Utility, Bathroom and Shower Room. First Floor, Bedroom. Lower Ground Floor, Two bedrooms.

LOCATION/AMENITIES:

Corpach has a well stocked supermarket, cafe and public house. Further local amenities are available in Caol and also Fort William.

Fort William is the main district town of Lochaber and is known as the Outdoor Capital of the UK. The area boasts some of the most beautiful scenery in Scotland and provides a number of outdoor pursuits including walking, climbing, sailing, skiing and mountain biking to name but a few.

There are train and bus services operating from Corpach to Fort William Town Centre and connecting the town to Glasgow, Inverness, Oban and Skye. The Caledonian overnight sleeper service to London also operates from Fort William on a daily basis except for Saturdays.

The southern end of the Caledonian Canal terminates at Corpach and the world renowned West Highland Railway Line also runs by the village alongside Loch Linnhe.
