DESCRIPTION

McIntyre & Company are delighted to bring 15 Caledonian Road to the market. This is a mid-terrace 2 bedroomed house that is situated in the popular village of Corpach. The property sits in a relatively quiet and elevated position above the village. The Caledonian Canal, Corpach Basin and a Woodland Walk are close by.

Built around 1965 this attractive family home spans approximately 75sq m. In addition to its lovely surroundings the property benefits from double glazing, air-source heating, lounge with a fireplace surrounded by a brick and tile hearth, good storage and restricted views of Loch Linnhe, rear views towards Ben Nevis and the surrounding hillside.

There is no chain and therefore an early date of entry could be available.

It should be noted that any remaining appliances have not and will not be tested and are sold as seen.

Accommodation comprises

Ground Floor: Entrance porch, rear hallway/utility area, lounge & kitchen.

First Floor: Two Bedrooms and Family Bathroom.

LOCATION/AMENITIES

The property is located within the popular village of Corpach where there is a well stocked supermarket and public house close by. Further local amenities are available in Caol and Fort William.

Fort William is the main district town of Lochaber and is known as the Outdoor Capital of the UK. The area boasts some of the most beautiful scenery in Scotland and provides a number of outdoor pursuits including walking, climbing, sailing, skiing and mountain biking to name but a few.

There are train and bus services operating from Corpach to Fort William Town Centre and connecting the town to Glasgow, Inverness, Oban and Skye. The Caledonian overnight sleeper service to London also operates from Fort William on a daily basis.

The southern end of the Caledonian Canal terminates at Corpach and the world renowned West Highland Railway Line also runs by the village alongside Loch Linnhe.
