LOCATION

Formerly The Council House, High Holburn was Sedgley's first public Library and was opened in 1951. In 1966 it was reappropriated by Dudley MBC and used as office space for the locality's Social Services Department until 2000. In 2003 it was converted in to Apartments by Selbourne Homes, leaving the original façade intact, disguising a rear extension. The building is of special interest but not listed. It is situated on the A459 Dudley Road and shares it access with local supermarket ASDA, giving excellent facilities and amenities with access to regular transport links. It also sits alongside St Chads & All Angels Church and St Chad's Primary School.
