BERRIMAN
EATON

26 Marchant Road, Compton, Wolverhampton, WV3 9QG

A period, semi-detached family home with many original features which is close to several schools and has five double bedrooms

LOCATION

Marchant Road is a small street which runs off Compton Road (A454) in a green and leafy suburb approximately one mile to the west of Wolverhampton City Centre.

Local facilities are available within walking distance and the further, more extensive amenities provided by Chapel Ash and the City Centre itself are within easy reach.

Public transport services are excellent with regular bus services running along the Compton Road and the area is particularly well served by schooling with both Wolverhampton Grammar School, Wolverhampton Girls' High School and St. Judes Primary School being within walking distance together with St Peter's and St Edmund's Collegiate Schools being on hand.

DESCRIPTION

26 Marchant Road offers well proportioned accommodation over three storeys. The property retains many original features along with double glazing and gas central heating. There are five double bedrooms, two bath / shower rooms, two reception rooms, a breakfast kitchen, laundry and guest cloakroom. It also benefits from off road parking with an EV charging point and a garage.
