LOCATION

Heathlands stands on the outskirts of Seisdon which is a picturesque South Staffordshire village which lies within beautiful and unspoilt countryside close to the Staffordshire and Shropshire borders standing at the heart of the "golden triangle" of Bridgnorth, Wolverhampton and Stourbridge with local facilities being available within the villages of Pattingham and Wombourne. The village offers a local convenience store and public transport close by and is convenient for commuters to Wolverhampton, Telford and Dudley.

DESCRIPTION

Heathlands was built in 2009 by the current owners to high, exacting standards. There are kitchen and bath / shower rooms of note and sweeping grounds surrounding the property. There is ample living space to the ground and first floors with the addition of the lower ground floor offering flexible living accommodation. This additional accommodation could be used for multi-generational living as there is a bedroom suite and a large entertainment / reception room. The space could equally be used for those wishing to work from home, although, there is also the benefit of the studio to the rear of the garage which could also be used as a workspace should buyers so wish.

The property benefits from double glazing, oak doors throughout, the gas central heating boiler was installed in 2023 and the property has been well looked after by the current and only owners.
